Discipline Procedures

At Dragon Watch we work to provide a positive environment for every child. We provide positive reinforcement in order to help children understand helpful behaviors. We follow our D.R.A.G.O.N rules and expect all children to follow these rules to act in a respectful and safe manner. In the case that a child is having a difficult time with behavior the following protocols will be used:

Initial Consultation: Parents will be contacted by the Dragon Watch Coordinator in order to discuss current behaviors the child is exhibiting. Dragon Watch and parents will work together in order to continue to reinforce positive behaviors.

Second Consultation: Parents will be contacted by the Dragon Watch Coordinator and a specific plan for child will be created and implemented in order to assist the child with positive behaviors. A plan will be agreed upon with parents and signed by parents.

Third Consultation: Parents will be contacted by the Dragon Watch Coordinator and child could be provided with suspension of one day to one week. If disruptive behaviors continue the Dragon Watch Coordinator has the option to suspend the child from the extended day program permanently.

Additionally, if the behavior exhibited by the child is of a severe nature, the Dragon Watch program may immediately suspend the child. Dragon Watch Staff will work closely with the parents and children in order to provide a safe and nurturing environment for all.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: If my child is a part of an after school club or organization and attends Dragon Watch, will the Dragon Watch staff ensure my child attends the club/organization meeting?

A: It is foremost the responsibility of the parent to verify their child knows where to be on what day. If your child attends Dragon Watch, forgetting to go to his/her event, the Dragon Watch staff will not be held responsible for your child's attendance at the club or event.

Q: If I forget to pay for Dragon Watch service in a timely manner, will I be fined a late charge?

A: Yes. The Dragon Watch Handbook states that all payments must be made every Friday for the current week of use and that a $5 late fee will be incurred for late payments made after the following Monday of use.

Q: I find that I'm frequently late picking up my child. Will I lose the option of using Dragon Watch after-care?

A: The cap on late pick-up has been altered allowing for no more than 4 late pick-ups per month. The late fee will remain at $25.00 plus $1.00 per minute late. Should it become apparent that the late pick-up policy is being abused, disenrollment of your child will be taken into consideration.

Q: I find it difficult to remember to pay on time. Can I pay multiple weeks in advance?

A: Yes. Galileo School gladly accepts advanced payments for the Dragon Watch service
