

Mrs. Wilson has a deep appreciation for the arts. She graduated from Georgia Southern University with her Bachelor of Fine Arts and Masters in Education. While she taught elementary art in the public school system, she maintained a relationship with the local university where she was a Teacher Support Specialist facilitating student teachers. In her spare time you can find Mrs. Wilson at the local art museums soaking in the different visual arts. Her passion for art pours into her students. She loves being a part of the Galileo Dragons teaching art!
